Hello:

If you are reading this letter it is probably because you are considering Sam Inman as a realtor. Although the real estate market in the great Coeur d'Alene area was depressed, we asked Sam to list our house in January, 2009, after interviewing several potential agents from the area. She carefully explained to us the market conditions and her expectations and marketing strategies. Two weeks later, our house sold at near the asking price.

Sam worked diligently behind the scenes making sure that sales representatives were aware of our property. She was on the phone with us during the entire sales process making sure we stayed informed and ready for any potential challenges.

Our relationship with Sam was short, but very successful. We enjoyed her both as a person and as our real estate agent. We hope your relationship with her is as good as ours.

Sincerely,

Tony and Sherry Gonzales
