

Dear Home Owners,

My experience with Sam Inman has been exceptional. I was lucky enough to find Sam through one of her mailings. Being located out of state, I sent a generic email request and Sam immediately responded with detailed information and followed up consistently from there. She provided comps, cost breakdowns and any other information I requested promptly and with great accuracy. Sam was never more than a click or phone call away. Once I met with her I knew I had the right person to help me sell my mother's house and I am so fortunate for having made that decision.

Sam put me in contact with various resources for work I required on the house all of whom were reliable and reasonable. Sam made sure the work was completed to my satisfaction and again, stayed on top of work being done in my absence. The house sold within weeks and when I ran into some issues with closing due to probate, Sam made sure the buyer was well informed and helped us keep the sale on track. If I had another agent I could have easily lost the sale.

I would say that selecting Sam Inman as your realtor is a great choice. Her passion and enthusiasm speaks for itself. More than that, however, her knowledge of the market, her resources, her organization and ability to respond quickly is something that goes beyond "personality". Those are skills that come with experience and record of successful sales in a tough real estate market. She is an aggressive and talented realtor who will work for you and with you.

It was a pleasure to have worked with her and I would most definitely select her again.

Sincerely,

Joe Gardner
